WILHELMINA HERE
EARLY TOMORROW

The following wireless message has been received by the agents from the S. S. Wilhelmina, bound for Honolulu:
S. S. Wilhelmina, April 16, 8 p. m.— 460 miles from Honolulu. Fine weather; sea smooth. 47 cabin passengers; 5 steerage. 1500 tons cargo for Honolulu. 31 sacks mail for Honolulu. 46 packages express matter for Wells, Fargo & Co. 870 tons cargo for Hilo. Will arrive off port early Tuesday morning. All well.

Ten days from Honolulu to Seattle, was the time taken by the horse transport Dix that reached Puget Sound yesterday according to cables received by the local branch of the Merchants' Exchange. The Dix will be remembered as having spent about ten days here in the discharge of some five thousand tons of Japanese coal.

MATSON STEAMERS OCCUPY FRONT AND CENTER OF THE STAGE

Three Vessels to Call and Depart This Week—Much sugar coming to the Islands—Dredger South Bay Returned In Leaking Condition—Kona Maru Being Loaded With Sugar Mill Machinery.

Matson Navigation Company steamers will occupy a prominent position in local shipping circles this week.
Three vessels flying the Matson house flag will figure in the business done at the port in the way of receiving cargo and the shipments of sugar.

The steamer Lurline now at the sugar wharf is to sail for island ports tomorrow evening. This vessel proceeds to Port Allen, Kahului and then back to Honolulu arriving here on April 23rd. The Lurline is to be dispatched for San Francisco at five o'clock on the evening of April 25th.
While at Port Allen the Lurline will receive 476 tons sugar and at Kahului 2000 tons molasses will be loaded in the bulk. In leaving the islands the vessel will take 654 tons sugar products. The passenger bookings thus far indicate that between fifteen and twenty cabin passengers will sail for the coast by the popular vessel.

The Hilonian, a Matson steamer on the triangular route is to arrive at the port this afternoon, with 946 tons of general cargo. Most of this comes from San Francisco and Puget Sound ports. The vessel is also reported as bringing 673 tons for Kahului, 231 tons to be trans-shipped to Hilo, 152 tons for Port Allen and 40 tons for Kaanapali. The Hilonian is expected will sail for Port Allen on the evening of April 21st sailing from there the following day for Kahului, departing from the Maui ports for San Francisco direct. The Hilonian will be given sugar to the amount of 1227 tons at Kahului and 2173 tons at Honolulu making a total of 3400 tons from Hawaiian ports destined for coast refineries.

The Wilhelmina, the crack passenger liner of the fleet is due to arrive off the port at an early hour tomorrow morning and it is believed that the vessel will be at the Matson wharf before eight o'clock. The Wilhelmina is bringing a light general cargo including 1500 tons merchandise for Honolulu and 870 tons for Hilo. There are 47 cabin and 5 steerage passengers, 231 sacks mail and packages Wells Fargo Express matter on board.

The Wilhelmina will take as outward cargo 2141 tons raw sugar at Hilo and 3000 tons refined sugar from Honolulu with 600 additional tons raw sugar at Honolulu.

Bringing Cargo for the Islands.
On or about April 24th the American-Hawaiian freighter Alaska should arrive here from Puget Sound ports. The steamer is reported to have sailed from Seattle yesterday.
The Alaska brings freight from New York transhipped at the isthmus of Panama. The vessel also made calls at San Francisco. The Alaska will gather the regulation twelve thousand tons of sugar at the several island ports before returning to Salina Cruz.

Persia Due Tomorrow Afternoon.
A new wireless telegraph outfit has been installed in the Pacific Mail intermediate steamship Persia. The spark has reached this port to the effect that the Persia will be off the port at four o'clock tomorrow afternoon, enroute from San Francisco to the Orient. The vessel has a few lounge passengers but no cargo. The Persia will probably be dispatched at ten o'clock on Wednesday morning for Japan ports and Hongkong.

An Orphan of the Sea.
No one has come forward to claim the little sailing craft that for some weeks has been moored at the Maunaloa wharf awaiting an owner. The small blue painted sail boat is apparently in seaworthy condition. It was picked up off the harbor by some Hawaiian fishermen and brought into port with the belief that the vessel had slipped its moorings. Despite their inquiry, no claim to the owner has been secured.

Kukui Ready for Inspection Tour.
The United States Light House Tender Kukui is being made ready for an inspection tour of the islands. The vessel has been coaled and it is the present intention to dispatch the vessel for Kauai this evening.

PETITIONERS VS.
UNION STREET

The following petition in connection with the Union street location was introduced in the House this morning:

We, the undersigned citizens of the United States, property owners and business men of the City and County of Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, do hereby object to the passing of Senate Bill No. 117 for purpose of re-locating Union Street.

We have the most important reasons for our objection.

First: It will make Union Street more or less a lane, as the present width of the street in some place not fifty
